

Don't Go Little Bill

(These Cheeses Will Help Him Stay)

A CHEESE PLATE TO LIFT SADDENED SPIRITS

Cabot Clothbound Cheddar just might epitomize foods that comfort. Buttery and acidic, it's aged at The Cellars at Jasper Hill in Greensboro, VT.

The moderate stinker, Manchester, is a raw goat cheese with a gorgeous washed rind. It's made by Consider Bardwell Farm in West Pawlet, VT.

Colston Bassett Stilton, the buttery beauty from Nottinghamshire, England, just might bring tears to your eyes.

$25 (small, 4-6 people)

$38 (medium, 6-9)

$50 (large, 8-12)

Greene Grape Provisions

It is possible that a cheese could sell out. Check with the counter about availability and replacements.